Thanksgiving Dinner

We'll be gearing up for our Thanksgiving Dinner again this month. The Holdrege Eagles Aerie is open 365 days a year, including Thanksgiving and Christmas. If you'd like to join us for a club-cooked home-style meal, and/or if you'd like to donate a ham, a turkey, or a backstrap, or have a casserole or a pumpkin pie that is a family heirloom recipe that you'd like to share, there will be signup sheets at the club for both labor and food donations. If the kids can't come home, or the weather's bad and you don't feel like traveling, this is an option you may want to exercise.

State Dart Tournament

Holdrege Aerie sought the bid last year for the 2017 State Eagles Dart Tournament and won out over South Omaha, York and Columbus for the honor. We'd also hosted it in 2013 and 2008 and have received accolades from the attendees for our hospitality, the old-fashioned way that the tournament is run, and the way we don't jack up our prices when the out-of-towners come to visit.

This year's tournament was held October 27th to the 29th and featured 14 teams of men and women hitting the bullseye and helping fund Breast Cancer Research and Autism Awareness. The singles tournaments were held on Friday. Dave Hedglin of Central City won both 501 tournaments, with Bill Payne of York and Jason Wick of Holdrege coming in 2nd and 3rd on the first tournament, and T.J. Thomas of Central City and Mike Potter of Holdrege coming in 2nd and 3rd on the second tournament. The cricket champion was Tim Hixon of Holdrege in 1st, Jason Wick of Holdrege in 2nd, and Beau Bushnell of York in 3rd.

(cont. from page 1) Saturday brought fine competition from all quarters. While attendance was down from our peak in 2014, the crowd still enjoyed busting their diet at the “Grinders” food truck, those hat tricks that Tanner Lee was throwing in the 4th quarter for Nebraska, and the tremendous costumes at the Halloween party. Lynna Palmer as maybe a dead biker baboon or possibly a walking x-ray of a great ape in clothes he stole from an “Easy Rider” museum won first in the individual contest. John Sawtelle & Jane Roe of York were grounded flying monkees for 3rd in the couples, followed by Phelps County’s own Hugh Hefner who came with the Energizer Bunny (‘cause the Aerie wouldn’t let his Playmate bunny come in). They were actually Mike & Mary Olson. And Devon Barker sewed up a Bambi costume during the Nebraska game and came as a deer to Marvin Snodgrass’s “Hunter” for 1st place.

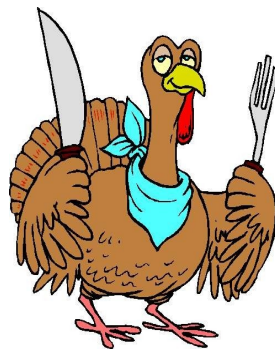

The outstanding “Best Group” prize went to the 5-Aerie conglomeration who aced the “Wizard of Oz” bunch. This Alliance/Norfolk/Omaha 38/Vermillion/York donated their 1st prize to the President’s Charity.

Sunday brought cinnamon rolls and big breakfasts and some nip and tuck races down to the last dart. When the smoke had cleared and the last “busted” buzzer had blasted, “Full of Bull” from Central City had taken home the trophy for most wins and the money for fewest points. The “Unemployed Porn Stars” from York made a pretty good wage in 2nd place, and the Holdrege team that played together for the first time Saturday morning, featuring Kyle Pinkal, Kyle Tyler, Tim Hixon, and Dick Smock came in 3rd. Their fitting moniker was “Miles and Miles of piles of Kyles”.

Afterwards, players from York helped us clean up, just as they’d done on Friday and Saturday evenings. “People helping People” is the motto the players of these tournaments live. They don’t just talk the talk.
