“Tis a great day not to be a cow.” Thankfully our heating system works fine and our employees keep things warm and inviting during this frigid spell we’re working through. Special thanks to custodian Gary Carr in this weather for keeping the interior so clean and the exterior passable. We’d like to welcome new bartender Dawn Wright to our Aerie. She’s been a mainstay at Paddington’s in Orleans for some time and is going to see if the weather is any better up north in Holdrege!

The regular season of Tuesday Night Pool is almost over, ending January 9th. Rich Araujo and his partners George Ogg, Dave Weeder, and Trevor Stattler are in first and trying to withstand a run by the top Bowl team of Clint Fox, Kent Waltemath, Jerry Nelson, and Jim Urbom. The Eagles teams of Brian Taylor, Tye Johnson, J.D. Williamson and Donnie Cerise are fight it out with Kelly Swanson, Kent Kuhn, Alan Tilson, and (alternating) Kyle Pinkal & Jim Stewart for 4th and 5th. 3rd place is pretty well wrapped up by Jerry Lerma’s team. While he’s playing for the Pub with teammates Ed Gardner, Steve Gardner, & Dan Ford, he’s still an Eagle and plays with us at state tournaments.

New Years Eve saw us approached by a comedy team wanting a place to show off their chops. There were around 100 to 110 people who were entertained by the witticisms of Stacy Kuhl-Cash and Kevin Huyser and quite a few stuck around to listen to Spanky and see the new year in. We had the best crowd in probably a half decade; partially because of the audience for the comedy show; and partially because no other places in town stayed open till midnight.

When your dues come around for payment, consider the scholarships, the free meals on Thanksgiving and Christmas, the many charities that are run for those less fortunate, and the fact that we’re open 364 days a year – (the employees get a late Christmas day off, usually the 2nd Sunday of January).

In the old days, the Legion Club and the Elks Club alternated holiday meals with us and shared in scholarships for local students. We’ve assumed 100% of those duties, and are available for funeral dinners, wedding receptions, and probably bar mitzvahs (but we haven’t had much call for the latter.)

We’ve also kept our dues at $25/year, cheaper than any other Aerie in the state. Don’t know how long we can continue that, but we will at least through 2018 and give you more bang for your buck than you can get elsewhere.

So have a great and healthy 2018 and stop by for one of Clay’s steaks or to shoot a game of pool, or just to hang out with your friends at the end of the day. It’s your patronage that makes our efforts worthwhile and keeps our doors open. - Trustees
