Club News

Our Eagles Aerie has lost two past presidents and three former club managers in the last few months. Both Edwin Cohagen and Sherm Sweeley kept in touch, though the former had moved from Gothenburg to North Platte and wasn't in the area much anymore. Sherm was also the club manager back in the '80's. Candy Henson and Gayle Fuqua also managed the club in the early part of this century. Our condolences to all of their families.

A lot of us fondly remember Steve Luebbe. When he retired from Becton-Dickenson he started buying (and of course selling) cattle and conducted a lot of business from his "office" in the card room of our Aerie. He fought throat cancer until December; and Mary was gracious enough to contribute $1,000 from his memorial funds to us. We are redecorating the card room in his memory. We've a new sculptured ceiling in place and will be replacing the light fixtures and painting the walls in the near future. It was kind of his family to think of us at the time of passing.

The mad puckers of Holdrege shuffled off to Kearney last month and had a great time sliding points on and off the boards at the Terry Murphy State Shuffleboard tournament. We fielded 3 8-person teams and the team of Brian Taylor & Dick Smock, Gary Carr & Darren Mues, JD Williamson & Ronnie Stewart, and Kyle Taylor & Charlie Hubbard ended up in the money. High pairs for each of the 3 teams were Kyle & Charlie, Doug Schilley & Kelli Kamler-Staggs, and a tie between Jessica & Isaac Ward and Jeff & Terisa Burgeson.

Tuesday Nite Pool League is almost over. Rich Araujo's team continues to dominate and will be playing Brian Taylor's team in a playoff Tuesday. Kent Waltemath's team and Mark Beam's will vie for the next two spots. The banquet on March 13th will mark the end of the 16th season for the league. Though it only costs $3.00 an evening with free tables, it has pumped a lot of revenue into the Pub and Eagles, as the two remaining initial sponsors; as well as Cheex/Taste of Texas, the old Elks club, and the bowling alley. A lot of friendships have been made over the years and each season approximately 145-160 different people play regularly or substitute and try to get that elusive 8-ball to fall in the right pocket.

The State Pool Tournament will be the 2nd weekend of April in Columbus at their Ag Center. We'll have at least 3 8-person teams representing Holdrege at that function also.
